DEDICATION...

To Doctor Robert N. Elliott, Jr.

whose competence in teaching has well prepared his students for further studies, whose concern for young people has qualified him to be their true friend and guide, whose ever-present sense of humor has opened the door to the heart of every student,

we affectionately dedicate the 1956 Anchor.

"He knew the chart . . .

All its pleasures and its griefs,
All its shallows and rocky reefs,
All those secret currents, that flow
With such resistless undertow."

—Longfellow

"A youth, against an anchor leaning, Listened to catch his slightest meaning."
—Longfellow

...PRESIDENT

These I believe to be important:
the ability to recognize and appreciate the hidden reefs and deep waters;
the instinct of victory;
and the will and desire by these created to weigh anchor and, by Him commissioned, to sail out unafraid upon the unknown, treacherous, yet benevolent sea of adventure.

—President Philip Lovin Elliott

"Gardner-Webb is on the air" are the familiar words of Jimmy Sides, radio announcer, as Gardner-Webb College begins its weekly program. Originating from the Huggins Memorial Communication Center, the programs are transmitted from this studio by station WOHS in Shelby. Many students participate in the programs that give a full coverage of college activities. Mr. Carr (right) provides for the music of the program, always beginning with the Alma Mater. Mr. Roberts (left) is the program director.

Peggie Redding is president of the Gardner-Webb Chapter; Mr. Dedmond is the faculty adviser.

The Hiking Club is a newly organized club sponsored by Mr. Troutman. The group has enjoyed many hikes and picnics under the leadership of its president, Don McCarson. This club could be called the Fresh Air Club because that is exactly what they want to get.

Under the leadership of Coach James Garrison (left) and Coach Norman Harris (right) the 1955 football squad made a fine record for the season. The successful season saw the Bulldogs divide conference honors with Lees-McRae.

In the curtain-raiser September 17, at Shelby, Gardner-Webb took on a tough Appalachian "B" team, bowing 12-6 after an unforgettable performance. The Mountaineers were deep in reserves, and this plus superior weight may have been the difference as Coach Norman Harris' Bulldogs served notice they were off to the grid wars, and would be no patsy for any opponent.

September 24 the Bulldogs fought a gamely-determined Mars Hill club to a narrow decision, 14-7, at the Lions' home field. With halfback J. T. Davis hitting his stride, and Jerry Hawkins playing inspired ball at center, the Bulldogs pulled this close one out of the fire.

September 30 the Bulldogs traveled to Cullowhee for a non-conference encounter with the Western Carolina "B". In a driving rain the Bulldogs managed to grind out a 6-0 victory.

On October 8 the local team returned home and responded kindly to a strong Hargrave team turning them back 19-6.

October 15 the strong boys from Banner Elk came to town, and Gardner-Webb quickly responded with a 19-19 tie. In a clean, hard-fought battle they spoiled the Bulldogs' perfect record.

On October 21 Coach Harris' gridders took on a strong Elon "B" team. The Bulldogs struck quick for a six point lead which they never relinquished.

Homecoming saw an inspired Mars Hill team come to town only to be blasted by eleven confident Bulldogs. Gardner-Webb was definitely up for this contest and carried off the victory 19-0.

Four players of Gardner-Webb's 1955 Bulldog squad were named to the mythical All-Conference team of the Western North Carolina Junior College Conference. The boys were chosen by coaches of the various teams in the conference. They were: Jerry Hawkins, of Shelby; Jerry Doby, of Mills Home; J. T. Davis, of Marion; and Tommy Sheets, of Winston-Salem. Jerry Hawkins was voted the Most Valuable Player of the Bulldog squad by his team mates and given a trophy at a banquet sponsored by the Progressive Club of Boiling Springs.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is designed to present for all students an interest in wholesome leisure time activities, to organize and administer a varied and interesting athletic program, and to stimulate a spirit of fellowship and comradeship through participation and competition. There is keen competition between classes in volleyball, basketball, and softball tournaments as they try for the trophy awarded on Field Day. Individuals become skilled in ping-pong and badminton. The Woman's Program is climaxed in the spring with the annual May Day festivities, in which members of all the physical education classes take part. Mrs. Haynes is making this year's program of physical education one of the best athletic programs ever.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club is composed of boys who earn letters in one of the three major sports: football, basketball, or baseball. The goal of the Monogram Club is to make the best in sportsmanship, and to make the members of the club leaders on the campus. This year the club has sponsored a visit of the Blood-mobile to Boiling Springs, has encouraged the March of Dimes on the campus, and has greatly promoted the school spirit.

". . . forsake earth's troubled waters for a purer spring."

HOMECOMING AND FOUNDERS DAY

Homecoming was celebrated in fine style. Many of the old grads enjoyed the parade and big pep rally on Friday night, October 28, 1955. The Rev. Horace G. Hammett, a former teacher and coach of the college, gave the Founders Day address at the chapel hour. Saturday evening a talent show was scheduled and a Bar-B-Que dinner followed on the Huggins-Curtis lawn. The day's activities were ended with the Homecoming football game Saturday night when the Bulldogs slaughtered the long-standing rival Mars Hill 19 to 0. At the half-time ceremonies, Sarah Farrow of Shelby was crowned Homecoming Queen by President Phil Elliott.

MAY DAY

With spring comes one of the loveliest occasions held on the campus—May Day. The May Court is elected by popular vote—the King and Queen from the sophomore class and the attendants and escorts from the sophomore and freshman classes. The crowning of the King and Queen, the May Pole Dance, and the glorious array of flowers make May Day one of the outstanding events of the year.

May Day of 1955 was held Saturday, May 7, on the terrace of the O. Max Gardner Memorial Student Center. The terrace and surrounding lawn had been transformed into an old Southern garden with hoop skirts, cotton bales, pickaninnies, and Southern ladies and gentlemen.
